

Let Mutual Love Continue
... to show hospitality to ...

ICE-BREAKERS

- Q. 1 Can you think of a time when someone welcomed you or showed you kindness in a way that really stuck with you? How did it make you feel?
- Q. 2 If you had to choose one thing (not money!) that makes you feel truly content, what would it be?
- Q. 3 Who is someone whose faith or example has inspired you? What did you learn from them?
- Q. 4 When do you feel closest to God, in a worship service, in serving others, or somewhere else? Why?

SERMON-BASED

- Q. 1 In what ways have you seen Christian “logs” (people) pulled apart, and what effect did that have on the community?
- Q. 2 What are some ways we can keep the fire of mutual love burning brightly in our church?
- Q. 3 Hebrews 13 and Matthew 25 both point us toward remembering prisoners, the sick, and the overlooked. What barriers sometimes keep us from seeing Christ in “the least of these”?

HEBREWS

13:1-8, 15-16

Sermon-Based Cont.

- Q. 4 How does learning to be content help us become more generous in serving others?
- Q. 5 Hebrews links praise (vertical) with doing good and sharing (horizontal). Why is it important that worship and service go hand in hand?

BEYOND THE TEXT

- Q. 1 Abraham welcomed strangers, not knowing they carried God's presence with them. What might it look like for our congregation to practice Abraham-like hospitality in our community today?
- Q. 2 Who might be the "strangers" God is calling us to notice and welcome? What do you think that looks like for our church?
- Q. 3 How can we learn to recognize opportunities to serve not just as charity, but as worship?
- Q. 4 The text teaches that contentment in God's presence frees us from fear and greed. What practices could help us cultivate the kind of freedom?
- Q. 5 How might our community service become a living expression of worship?
