

LOVE INCREASING

ICE-BREAKERS

- 1 Who has encouraged your faith the most?
- 2 When have you seen love "increase" in a community you're part of?
- 3 What's something you'd like others to thank God for in you?
- 4 If someone wrote a letter of encouragement to our church, what might they thank God for?

SERMON BASED

- 1 What does the image of "standing in the threshold" represent in both the change of seasons and the life of the Church?
- 2 According to Paul's words to the Thessalonians, what are the two signs of a growing faith community, and why does he give thanks for them?
- 3 How does All Saints Sunday invite us to understand the connection between the past and the present Church?

THESSALONIANS

1: 1 - 4, 11 - 12

sermon-based continued

- 4 What qualities make love “increasing,” according to the sermon? Identify examples of active, courageous love mentioned in the text?
- 5 How does the art of gathering at the Lord’s Table embody the unity between the saints in glory and the saints on earth?

BEYOND THE TEXT

- 1 How does your faith community measure spiritual growth? In what ways might Paul’s emphasis on “faith growing and love increasing” reshape your understanding of what a healthy church looks like?
- 2 When have you experienced a “season of transition” in your own faith journey? How did you sense God calling you to release something old so that new growth could take root?
- 3 How can the example of the saints inspire your personal discipleship? What practices of love, perseverance, or faithfulness could you carry forward to help Christ’s love increase in your community today?
