

ICE-BREAKERS God Poured Out | Genesis 1: 26-28, 31; 2: 1-3

- 1 What is a phrase that pops into your mind when you think of “church”? What phrases have you heard repeated in this church community (or maybe even other faith traditions)?
- 2 If you could spend a day in the Garden of Eden we see in Genesis 1 & 2, what are some things you might do?

SERMON BASED

- 1 “I will be your God; you will be my people” is repeated throughout Older Testament passages. Then in the Matthew passage today, we heard Jesus saying, “and I am with you, always, to the end of the age.” How does this constant presence give you comfort?
- 2 Jeremy said that the “opportunity to be God’s people” is “humbling, beautiful, good, dangerous.” Do any of these adjectives resonate with you? What words would you add?

BEYOND THE TEXT

- 1 Look at your week ahead. What does it look like for you to remember God is with you; how does that truth help you in something you are facing this week?
- 2 How does knowing that the Triune God IS a community – propel you forward to pursue community in your own life?

Leader: On this Trinity Sunday, we come to praise the Triune God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!

People: We praise God who creates, redeems, and sustains all creation!

Leader: We come to wade into the depths of the divine mystery of God, the One-in-Three and Three-in-One.

People: We seek an ever-deepening faith in God who creates, redeems, and sustains all creation!

Leader: We come to witness the interconnectedness of the Triune God, to marvel at the divine dance of partnership and cooperation.

People: We receive the invitation to join the divine dance of God, who creates, redeems, and sustains all creation!

Leader: Come, let us worship the Triune God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!

People: Come, let us worship the Triune God who creates, redeems, and sustains all creation!

+ OPENING PRAYER ..... Lillian Laukhuf

Out of our everyday lives, you have gathered us, Holy God, to worship and to praise. With all your people, we bless you and listen for your Word. Open our hearts and minds to your presence among us. Speak your Word into our chaos and bring new creation. Speak your Word into our guilt and shame and set us free. Shape our lives and this world with your goodness, and fill us with your courage, your hope, and your love. We pray in Jesus' name, who sends us to share love, mercy, and grace with all who long to know they are not alone. Amen.

"And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age"
